However, Contractor shall not be held responsible for delay due to reasons beyond its control, provided he notifies the Financial Services Administrator of such delay and the reasons for such delay, as soon as practicable, and requests extension prior to the delivery deadline. Requests for extensions shall not be considered without documentation substantiating that the causes for delay were, in fact, beyond the control of the Contractor. The Judiciary shall be the sole judge of whether such delay is truly beyond the control of the Contractor and whether extension will be granted.

2.14 DELIVERY AND SITE PREPARATION

Delivery of Sun Hardware shall be completed within thirty (30) calendar days to the appropriate delivery site after receipt of purchase order.

Contractor shall provide Judiciary with any special requirements/instructions for site preparation to the Judiciary within seven (7) days after receipt of order. All costs and charges incurred by the Judiciary, together with the cost of completing the work or services under the contract, will be off set from any monies due or which would or might have become due to the Contractor had the Contractor completed the work under the contract. If such expense exceeds the sum which would have been payable under the contract, the Contractor shall be liable and shall pay to the Judiciary the amount of such excess within ten (10) days after demand therefore.
